

IQuity works with entrepreneurial leaders, organizations, Governments and investors to build, launch and successfully commercialize business ventures domestically and globally. We do it leaner, faster and with less risk. We build companies ourselves and in partnership with other founders and growth-minded organizations regardless of where they are in the world.

CATALYZE

Using our uniquely integrated network of services within, we have devised a multidisciplinary structure which enables us to help accelerate your business model.

CAPITALIZE

We invest our own capital to kickstart projects and harness a range of cost-efficiencies services so that we can assist our clients more effectively.

COLLABORATE

We believe collaboration fosters innovation, which leads to more successful and sustainable business ventures.

COMMUNICATE

IQuity proactively undertakes communication activities and strives to ensure a fair and transparent working relationship with all stakeholders.

LEADING THE WAY IN INNOVATION

- Credited for our innovative hybrid business model which embraces convergence and client-centric solutions.
- IQuity has broken ground by being one of the first venture development firms in the life sciences industry to expand horizontally into the broader regulated and professional services market.
- We take our cues from the changing marketplace, and recast the fragmented industry model into a collaborative ecosystem driven by our belief in being able to create added value for clients and partners.

UNIQUE INTEGRATED SERVICES PLATFORM

- IQuity implemented a uniquely integrated network of services within our portfolio of companies and strategic partners. We have devised a multidisciplinary structure which enables clients and partners to maintain focus on their immediate business needs.
- Our multidisciplinary platform model is supported by a shared-service company, housed within a global brand.
- We supply the strategic direction, development, sourcing, legal, corporate, and administrative components you need to get to the most cost-effective solution in the shortest time frame.

WHY COME TO US

- We have over 20 years of on-the-ground business expertise incorporating companies, enabling them to grow, identifying risks, and protecting their interests.
- Our international presence is a principal hallmark of our offering.
- Additionally, by investing in an innovative multidisciplinary platform, we have harnessed a range of cost-efficiencies services so that we can assist our stakeholders more effectively.

YOU AT THE CENTER OF OUR BUSINESS

- Client experience is the overriding competitive linchpin in today's economy. IQuity and our extended team put you first.
- We constantly reinvent ourselves to put you at the center of our business paradigm.
- We bring together the best people, ideas and technical expertise and partner with clients to turn their ambitions into action.

We draw on decades of experience, proven expertise and rich networks to structure, develop, fund innovation and companies with unique business models.
